

Fiction

Student Name:		Grade:
Congregation Name:		Congregation #:

“Therefore, encourage one another and build each other up, just in fact you are doing.” 1 Thessalonians 5:11. Be sure to make comments explaining any scoring: if work needs improvement, explain why; if the work is good, tell them what you liked about it; if the work is outstanding, say why.

	Gold	Silver	Bronze	Comments
Theme	This fiction writing addresses the message of the theme in an excellent manner.	This fiction addresses the message of the theme in a fair manner.	This fiction writing addresses the message of the theme in an effective manner.
Creativity	This fiction writing is creative and addresses the theme in a unique manner.	This fiction writing is somewhat creative and addresses the theme in an expected manner.	This fiction writing has very little creativity and does not have much creativity or uniqueness.
Readability	This story is an excellent read. There is nothing in the story that prevents the reader from understanding the message or finding the theme.	This story is a fair read. There are a few things in the story that distract the reader from understanding the message or finding the theme.	This story is an effective read. There are many things in the story that distract the reader from understanding the message or finding the theme.
Format: Word Usage, Spelling, Punctuation	The student used words creatively. There are no spelling mistakes or punctuation errors.	The student has used words in an acceptable manner. There are a few spelling and punctuation errors.	The student has used words in an effective manner. There are numerous spelling and punctuation errors.
Overall Effect	This writing is done in an excellent manner. The message addresses the theme, is clear and easy to understand. Pictures, if used, add to the meaning and effectiveness of the story.	This writing is done in a fair manner. The message somewhat addresses the theme, can be picked out and understood. Pictures, if used, are somewhat effective in adding meaning to the story.	The writing is done in an effective manner. The message is hard to determine and may not address the theme. Pictures, if used, do not match the story or add any meaning to the story.

Comments: (Speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into Him, who is the head, that is Christ.” Ephesians 4:15)

As a judge I feel that this work deserves the following award (circle one):

Bronze

Silver

Gold